

ANNUAL REPORT 2019-2020

ANNUAL REPORT 2019-2020

The Department of English consists of 18 Staff Members of whom 2 are PhD's and 1 is SET and 1 is NET qualified.

The commencement of the odd semester started with good hope and confidence. Training the Trainers Orientation Program for the Bridge Course Teachers was conducted on 19.06.2019. By the start of June, "Bridge courses" were conducted by the faculty members of English department for the I UG students of all branches implying on the basic tenets of English language and its daily usage. In the afternoon session special motivational classes were also conducted to the students.

24.06.19

Bridge course program for the first-year students was held from 24.06.2019. Day one started with an introduction to about the course, followed with the topic vocabulary and its usage. Introduction about phonetics was also given. Students were trained to speak with proper accent. Games were also conducted regarding the same.

25.06.19

Day two of the course started with “The Parts of Speech”. The eight parts of speech started with Noun followed with Pronoun, Verb, Adverb, Adjective, Conjunction, Preposition and Interjection were explained in detail to the students. Training was also given to them about the same. Every one participated with more enthusiasm.

Afternoon session of the course started with the motivational topic on “Know and build yourself”. Students participated and also got motivated about the same.

26.06.19

Tense was thought and trained to the students on the third day of the bridge course. The three tenses with the four forms were taught to the students. Interaction session was also conducted. Students were asked to interact among themselves and also to frame sentences with the four forms of the tense. Students also participated in the same with enthusiasm.

In the afternoon session of the day two staff members from other disciplines delivered and shared their erudite thoughts on “Your Perception”. Students participated with more enthusiasm.

27.06.19

Active and passive voice was learned by the students on the fourth day of the Bridge Course. Students as a revision were asked to frame sentences of various types and from the same they were taught “Active and Passive voice”. Students participated more eagerly in the same.

Day three of the afternoon session was focused on the “Focus your Attitude”. Students were trained and explained about focusing the attitude.

28.06.19

The final day of the course came to an end with the vivid description about Homophones, Alliteration, Tongue twisters etc. The students were asked to come out with the feedback of the course. Students volunteered to give the feedback. Finally the session came to an end about 11.30a.m

In the last day of the afternoon session students were encouraged and motivated on the topic “Your career development with effective Communication”. They were given various ideas and suggestions to endow themselves in their career.

Afternoon session of the course started with the motivational topic on “Know and build yourself”. Students participated and also got motivated on the same.

Literary association meet inaugural of Department of English was held at Hall B on 10.07. 2019. Dr.Shibila, Hod, Assistant Professor, Prist University spoke on the topic” Basic Concepts of Research Methodology”. She also gave a vivid description about the various methods and stages to be followed in writing a thesis.

Guest Lecture for the students of Department of English was held on 07.08.2019. Mr. Kabilan.D was the resource person. He spoke on the topic “Preparation for UGC NET examination”. He gave various ideas and methodologies for the preparation of the same

Guest Lecture II for the students of Department of English was held on 07.08.2019. Mr. DR.T. KARUNAKARAN, SRILANKA was the resource person. He spoke on the topic ROLE OF TRANSLATION AND ITS IMPORTANCE. He delivered the lecture in a pleasing way.

It's glad to state that Mrs.U. Vinothini of our department got her doctoral degree awarded.

Literary Association Meet II of PG and Research Department of English was organized and conducted on 25.01.2020. Resource person Dr.S. Padma Priya addressed the gathering. She spoke on “Translation and its importance in Literature”. She delivered in an enhancing manner the role of translation in our day-to-day life.

Literary club activities were held from 17.9.19 to 24.9.19. Competitions such as

POEM WRITING

PENCIL SKETCHERY

NEWS READING

ELEGY WRITING

SHORT STORY WRITING

ADVERTISEMENT

GLASS PAINTING

REVIEW WRITING

GREETING CARD MAKING

STORY TELLING

LIT CORNER

LITERARY PARADE

SKIT

LITERARY ALBUM MAKING

MIME

LIT SET

VIDEO PRESENTATION

LITERARY EXHIBITION

QUIZ

DEBATE

ONE – ACT PLAY WRITING were conducted to the students. Students participated with more enthusiasm and won many prizes in the above.

Add on course for the non-major students was conducted in the month of February. Students got motivated about. LISTENING, SPEAKING, READING AND WRITING SKILLS. Students were given a vivid description about the topic and the syllabus. They got trained not only with the syllabus prescribed. Apart from the theory classes practical sessions were also conducted to them. Students got involved in the same with more enthusiasm. Exam was also conducted on the same. Students on the last class came out with the feedback. 56 students got benefited.

Inaugural of Drama Club. The “Dramaturgy” was held on 27.08.2019. The Chief Guest, Prof.M.Manmathan, Head of the Department of English, Karanthai UmaMaheshwaranar Arts and Science of College addressed the gathering. He spoke about the significance and the role of drama in the English Literature. His speech was eye-evoking.

PG and Research Department of English conducted and organized a one-day national level seminar on Literary theory and Literary trends in Modern Scenario.

Session-I started with the chief guest address by Dr.V.Enoch, Assistant Professor, Pondicherry University. He spoke on Literary Theory. He started with the description and definition of what literature is and also, he covered the area of the Literary theory in a descriptive manner. He also motivated the participants in his own style. Session-II started with a vivid description of Dr.V.Meenakshi, Asst.Professor, Govt. Arts and Science College, Orathanad, about post colonialism and the area in and around was also covered. Dr.Angayarkan Vinaayaka Selvi started the session-III on Feminism. She spoke on the same in an exemplary way. 153 participants attended the same from various colleges

It's glad to remark that our department has gained university toppers. We have rank holders in UG as well as in PG. Three from UG and one from PG secured university rank in the examination conducted by the Bharathidasan University.