In collaboration with Meenachai Mission Hospital, Thanjavur, the Youth Red Cross (YRC) and Rotaract Club of Annai Vailankanni Arts and Science College, they held a blood donation camp on their campus on October 19, 2019. By 10:00 a.m., our correspondent, Rev. Fr. Dr. S. Sebastain Periannan, and our administrator, Rev. Fr. Dr. S. Arockia Dass, had officially launched the camp. During the camp, a total of 70 people donated blood.

FIRST AID PROGRAMME

DATE: 25-02-2020

VENUE: ANNAI VAILANKANNI ARTS AND SCIENCE COLLEGE, THANJAVUR-7

Shivering and indications of fits were observed by a young girl. First aid was provided by YRC co-ordinators with the assistance of other staff members and students. She was treated well after she was free of agony and returned to her previous state.

A ONE DAY STUDENT STUDY CAMP

VENUE: INDIAN RED CROSS SOCIETY' THANJAVUR

The Indian Red Cross Society, Thanjavur, organised a one-day student study camp. The training programme was attended by the college programme officer as well as two YRC volunteers. Dr. Radhika Michael begins the programme by raising awareness about the blood drive and donors. After that, fire safety and its measures were done, as well as first aid precautions and the dangers of a traffic collision, which were described and demonstrated. Resource people from a variety of fields attended to raise awareness. A total of about 50 students from various colleges took part. The programme came to a close with a practical orientation in which students split up and demonstrated what they had learned.
